Meet Moda's New Designer!

I began my graphic design career in the advertising industry where my passion for vintage promotional art and typography began. Through the years I have collected both richly-designed and modestly-composed printed paper items referred to as ephemera. As an artist and crafter I find vintage ephemera creates fun, attention-getting components in my collage work. As an avid flea market shopper I have discovered and collected a vast amount of ephemera over the years such as floral trade cards, handwritten postcards, perforated trading stamps, and ingredient-stained recipe cards. Flea market shopping has also yielded many other exciting finds for decorating and crafting—delightful old photos, paint by number paintings, vintage quilting and needlework textiles, and delightful sewing notions. I am proud to present my favorite, visually-rich flea market finds mixed and designed into beautiful Moda Fabrics.
