

Mill Creek Garden

Jan Patek Quilts

The soothing sound of water dripping off the mill wheel watering the garden below brings up images of the wild flowers that spring to life wherever there is water, soil and sunlight. The sights and sounds of a garden are music to my soul, bringing a sense of peace and harmony. Mill Creek Garden brings the colors of the garden to fabric and quilts – verdant green, rich brown and the lavender and purple of the flowers that always find root in my backyard.
